TOO PERSONAL.

The world over, among gentlemen, whether in the so-called humble, or in the so-called higher walks of life, as well among the snide miners of Poker Flat as in London society, it is an absolute rule never to bring into any public controversy, or into unpleasant publicity of any kind, the name of a lady. She has not the man's privilege of asserting her own rights or of defending herself, certainly not to the same extent nor in the same forcible way in which men can take care of themselves. But a lady's name is always sacred.

A citizen lately wrote a communication over his own name, which was published in our columns, calling attention to what he regarded as a public wrong on the part of Mr. Gibson, the President of the Boards of Education and Health, in respect to the public schools. His statement was met by the Advertiser with an editorial denial of its truth "as far as Mr. Gibson is concerned." Then came the correspondence on the subject with which the public is familiar, attended by the protest to the foreign representatives, on the same subject as the original letter.

The sense of the community is unmistakable, but the contents of the letter and article in the Advertiser on the subject, referring to a lady, are grossly and inexcusably personal.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondence is solicited on the topics of the day, or what may become so. We reserve the right to exclude purely personal matter.
We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.—Ed.

THE LEPROSY QUESTION.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Had Dr. Parker allowed my rectification of Mr. Ashford's letter to stand unchallenged, any communication of mine would have been henceforth withheld from the public press. As it is the responsibility of the continuation of the controversy rests with him. My simple defence to X's letter, in Wednesday's Advertiser, will be the publication of the following document:

HONOLULU, Feb 19th, 1884.

His Excellency W. M. Gibson, President of the Board of Health, Dear Sir:—I have to tender you my resignation as Examining Physician of Suspected Lepers. In doing so I will state my reasons:

To-day only have I had the opportunity of reading in the daily papers the correspondence on Leprosy in the Schools, having, as you know, been absent to Kahului, and too much engaged yesterday to read the papers.

A letter of Dr. Parker's in the BULLETIN, and the article of Pater-familias in to-day's Advertiser, have convinced me that I am entirely at variance with the views of the Board on the question of leprosy.

I know my duties, have so far executed faithfully my instructions, fearlessly and honestly expressed my opinion when asked.

To-day I must come to the conclusion that neither my services nor my views are agreeable, and, in duty to myself, respectfully decline to continue my services.

It must be obvious to every one, as well as to myself, that two of the Government physicians, Drs. Fitch and Parker, enjoy the confidence of the Board, and as I am entirely at variance with their views, I simply withdraw.

I wish my resignation to take effect from the first of the present month, as I have not been employed from that date, made no examination and therefore am not entitled to any salary.

I remain, Your Excellency's Respectful Servant, G. THOUSSEAU.

This document, written before X's letter appeared in the Advertiser, I think answers most of the points made by the Board in the present controversy. I say the Board purposely, as the Advertiser entirely endorses the action of the Board in the matter, and X's letter could not have been allowed to appear without the sanction of the Board.

I will simply add that the suggestion made that I had nothing to do but to obey orders, is, if any thing, extraordinary. It never was impressed upon me by the Board that my position was to be a subordinate one, and compel me, so to speak, to relinquish my own identity, and identify myself with the said Board's doings, whatever they might be. If that was to be the case I am only sorry that I did not resign sooner. As to the other accusation of my being jealous of Drs. Fitch and Parker it is simply ludicrous and requires no answer.
G. THOUSSEAU.

HONOLULU, 20th February, 1884.

THE OTHER SIDE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—You will admit that most questions have two sides—a serious side and a comic side. Some people look at one side, and some at the other: not many are capable of seeing the two sides. It sometimes happens that the serious aspect of one matter is perceptible to a person, whilst of another he has no eye but for the comic. Your daily contemporary affords an illustration of the last assertion. He finds "amusement" in that part of Whitaker's lecture which refers to the Hawaiian "protest," but in that famous "protest" itself he has never seen anything in the least degree "amusing." How strange! My mental make-up is entirely the reverse.

After reading the Advertiser's editorial I was expecting to find some fun in the New Zealand statesman's address; but I was disappointed. One or two slight inaccuracies, yes; but not so funny in my eye as to raise a smile. When I got through the abstract of the lecture, I involuntarily repeated to myself what I once saw in print:—"More truth than poetry!" I may here observe, parenthetically, that the Advertiser falls into a "palpable inaccuracy" in accusing Mr. Whitaker of saying that "this government is run by a few American sugar planters;" what he did say was, "the real government is carried on in the interest of sugar speculators in the United States." A wide difference. But, to return to the protest, this always seemed to me such an inexpressibly funny thing that I have smiled loudly over it lots of times. Like Mr. Whitaker, who calls it "a most extraordinary document," I never could see the serious side. Even in my sleep I sometimes dream about it, and when I do I am bound to wake up in roars of laughter. Jack, my mate who sleeps in the adjoining room, gets so mad with me for "disturbing the quiet of the night," that he threatens to hand me over to the authorities either as a common nuisance or as a dangerous lunatic. Really, I can't help it; I wish I could; my friend, the Advertiser, can only see the serious side of that "extraordinary document," and I can only see the comic side. VAT SHALL I DO?

LEPROSY IN THE SCHOOLS.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—A correspondent of the Advertiser, who erroneously calls himself "Fair Play," says that Mr. Ashford's letters were "nothing more than a desire to pick at the Board of Health." If Mr. Ashford, or anybody else thought it necessary to "pick at the Board of Health" then it was his duty to do so. "There is occasion for an experienced young man to come out and try to dictate or advise the Board," if the Board neglects its duty, as has been clearly proved by its delay in postponing the examination of the pupils in the schools for a month after the President, who is practically the Board, was petitioned to examine them. Mr. Ashford's statements have not "been proved to be totally wrong" and it is his duty to "interfere with a subject" in which he knows there has been gross negligence. It is a pity that there are not more men in the community who will come forward and expose acts of official neglect or mismanagement that come under their notice. "Fair Play!" Which in this instance means one who wishes to curry favor with the man in power. Poor creature! I am NOT A SYCOPHANT.
